

THE MAYORALTY ELECTION.

CANDIDATES, POLLS AND COMMISSIONERS.

We publish below a full list of the nominations of the Democratic and Anti-Know Nothing party, and with them the names of the opposition. Also the locations of the polls and the names of the Commissioners. The polls will be opened at seven o'clock a. m., and closed at seven o'clock p. m.

FOR MAYOR. DEMOCRATIC AND ANTI-KNOW NOTHING TICKET. James G. Berret. OPPOSITION TICKET. Richard Wallach. PRESIDENT TICKET. John Purdy.

FIRST WARD. DEMOCRATIC AND ANTI-KNOW NOTHING TICKET. For Alderman—William T. Dove. For Common Council—Charles Albert, John B. Turton, S. S. Parker. For Assessor—William Higgins.

OPPOSITION TICKET. For Alderman—John A. Bradley. For Common Council—Sam'l Stott, John W. Easby, Charles Gordon. For Assessor—John A. Rheeme.

POLLS. First Precinct—Wood office of G. T. McGillicuddy, 121st and 19th streets; Commissioners—George Emerson, Daniel Serin, Terence Drury. Second Precinct—corner of 21st and H streets; Commissioners—Charles E. Davis, A. W. Denham, William E. Perkins.

SECOND WARD. DEMOCRATIC AND ANTI-KNOW NOTHING TICKET. For Alderman—Thomas J. Fisher. For Common Council—Grafton Powell, William Orme, Charles S. Jones.

OPPOSITION TICKET. For Common Council—Edward C. Dyer, Chas. L. Colman. For Assessor—Wm. H. Richards.

POLLS. First Precinct—Wilkins's, corner of Massachusetts avenue and 12th street; Commissioners, John Brand, Geo. E. Hillard, Sam'l W. Owen. Second Precinct—South-east corner of 12th and F streets; Commissioners—A. B. Stoughton, Samuel Lewis, W. F. Sheld.

THIRD WARD. DEMOCRATIC AND ANTI-KNOW NOTHING TICKET. For Alderman—Joseph F. Brown. For Common Council—Lambert Trose, Christopher S. O'Hare, William G. Palmer. For Assessor—Zephaniah Jones.

POLLS. First Precinct—North-east corner of 7th and M streets; Commissioners, Wm. B. Butt, Wm. Furgurson, John F. Sharratt. Second Precinct—North-west corner of 7th and G streets; Commissioners, Ben. E. Gittings, Wm. Howell, Jr., James Crandall.

FOURTH WARD. DEMOCRATIC AND ANTI-KNOW NOTHING TICKET. For Alderman—William W. Moore. For Common Council—Elijah Edmondson, Wm. P. Mohun, Stephen D. Castleman.

OPPOSITION TICKET. For Alderman—J. P. Pepper. For Common Council—W. B. Webb, W. G. Deale, J. T. Clements.

POLLS. First Precinct—No. 595 Massachusetts avenue, between 4th and 5th streets west; commissioners, John Dowling, E. Milburn, E. C. Eckloff. Second Precinct—Police office, basement room, west wing of City Hall; commissioners, Francis Mohun, Charles B. Maury, Geo. S. Gideon.

FIFTH WARD. DEMOCRATIC AND ANTI-KNOW NOTHING TICKET. For Alderman—W. C. Dunnington. For Common Council—W. A. Malloy, W. F. Wallace, Thompson Van Riswick. For Assessor—George F. Smallwood.

OPPOSITION TICKET. For Alderman—H. N. Gihert. For Common Council—Samuel Cook, W. S. Colquhoun, John Bohlaver. For Assessor—B. F. Dyer.

POLLS. First Precinct—First Primary School-House, corner of South A and Third streets east; commissioners, W. B. Todd, S. Y. McNair, W. G. Busby. Second Precinct—School-house, corner of South D and Third streets east; commissioners, John W. Van Hook, Thos. Hutchinson, Joseph M. Adams.

SIXTH WARD. DEMOCRATIC AND ANTI-KNOW NOTHING TICKET. For Alderman—A. M. Miller. For Common Council—George A. Bohrer, John Russel, Franklin Ober.

POLLS. First Precinct—Old Old Fellows' Hall, corner of G street south and Eleventh street east; commissioners, Henry N. Ober, N. Lewis, George Brown. Second Precinct—Anacostia engine-house; commissioners, Lem'l Gaddis, Lawrence A. Tuell, John H. Pease.

SEVENTH WARD. DEMOCRATIC AND ANTI-KNOW NOTHING NOMINATIONS.—For Alderman—John Cassin. For Common Council—James E. Johnson, George Wright, Edward M. Clark. For Assessor—Samuel Taylor.

POLLS. First Precinct—On the west side of Four-and-a-half street, west, near the intersection of Virginia avenue; Commissioners, S. York, A. Lee, John C. Cooke, Benjamin S. Kinsey. Second Precinct—On Thirteen-and-a-half street, between B and C streets; Commissioners, W. Latham, J. D. Stenark, Henry A. Clarke.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE DAY.

PROCLAMATIONS BY THE MAYOR.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Washington, June 3, 1858. The election of public officers for the federal city is about to take place, and the country expects every good citizen of the District to do his duty in the preservation of order and good government among us.

The right of every qualified voter to exercise his elective franchise according to his judgment is dear to freedom, and odious to tyrants only. Any attempt to resist this sacred right in the coming election will be met and resisted with energy and determination.

There is power inherent among us to protect our citizens in their lawful rights, and force will be used to any extent that shall appear necessary and proper to assert and vindicate the public peace.

Let lawless gangs be assured that they will not escape condign punishment should they venture to commit outrages similar to those enacted in this city but a year ago.

The right of the people to live under the protection of laws, and to manage their affairs according to their judgment, will be maintained against violence and menace, no matter from what quarter they shall proceed.

W. B. MAGRUDER, Mayor.

NOTICE TO KEEPERS OF TAVERNS AND RESTAURANTS.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Washington, June 3, 1858. The keepers of taverns, hotels, ordinaries, and bars, and drinking-places of all kinds, are hereby required to close that portion of their establishments which afford drinking accommodations thoroughly on Monday, the 7th instant, during the entire day.

The right of every qualified voter to exercise his elective franchise according to his judgment is dear to freedom, and odious to tyrants only. Any attempt to resist this sacred right in the coming election will be met and resisted with energy and determination.

There is power inherent among us to protect our citizens in their lawful rights, and force will be used to any extent that shall appear necessary and proper to assert and vindicate the public peace.

Let lawless gangs be assured that they will not escape condign punishment should they venture to commit outrages similar to those enacted in this city but a year ago.

The right of the people to live under the protection of laws, and to manage their affairs according to their judgment, will be maintained against violence and menace, no matter from what quarter they shall proceed.

W. B. MAGRUDER, Mayor.

NOTICE BY THE MARSHAL.

LAW AND ORDER.—It will be seen by the following notice that Col. Selden, the energetic and efficient marshal of this District, has summoned a posse of mounted men, and will hold a strong reserve of them, armed and equipped, in readiness to act in any quarter of the city.

Notice respecting the City Election on Monday next.—I think proper to advise the public that I have ordered a special armed force, consisting of about eighty well-armed troops, who, early on Monday morning, will assemble at the public jail, and be equipped and ready, if need be, to act in concert and combination with the city authorities and general police in quelling disturbances, should any occur, during the election.

Several troops will attend, unarmed, each precinct, and be ready to repair to the public jail for the body of the cavalry on any appearance of an outbreak.

It is hoped that nothing will occur to menace the voters and to restrain them in the lawful right to vote as they shall think proper. But to preserve the reign of law and justice in the federal metropolis, force to any extent will, without the fear of consequences, be freely exerted against disturbers of the public peace.

WM. SELDEN, Marshal of the District of Columbia.

SPECIAL POLICE OFFICERS.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Washington, June 3, 1858.

The mayor's respectful notices his fellow-citizens that he has appointed the following persons special police officers, to act on Monday next, in accordance with power vested in him by the resolution of May 29, 1858:

To attend at the Polls of the First Precinct of the First Ward.—Thomas B. Entwisle, Henry Burch, Jacob Frank, James

A CARD FROM CHAS. ALBERT, ESQ.

On the 21st of the month I called to my attention an advertisement in the Star of yesterday, in which my name appears upon the "Independent Citizens' ticket" as one of their candidates for election to the board of common council. Had I been consulted before this announcement was made, I certainly would not have consented to my name being so used by a party antagonistic to the one to which I belong.

Having for several years past occupied a seat in the common council as a member of the democratic and anti-know-nothing party, and being now a candidate of that party, daily nominated, and announced by a public convention, and my party principles are well known to the citizens of the ward in which my nomination interests, I cannot but view this nomination by the opponents of my party with surprise, whatever may have been the intention. Last any misunderstanding should arise among the independent citizens' party in consequence of their announcement, I feel bound to state that the ticket of my party has no connection with the nomination and support, shall continue to have it, and will receive my vote.

Being too late for the evening papers, I will thank you to insert this in your paper of to-morrow.

Very respectfully, yours, CHAS. ALBERT.

THE MAYORALTY—REPLY TO "AN OLD WHIG."

I notice in your paper of to-day, (June 4th), in a communication signed "An Old Whig," the following: "An Old Democrat should consider that in voting for Mr. Berret he puts the hands that he has recently been among the millions of the National Treasury into the pockets of the millionaires, and that the habits of extravagance acquired by the handling of millions out there will be a man for the judicious management of hundreds."

Now, it is true that hundreds of thousands, if not millions, of public money have passed through Mr. Berret's hands; and it is true that every cent has been accounted for. Mr. Berret, upon leaving the City Post Office, promptly settled his accounts to the last dollar.

"An Old Whig" has made an unfortunate mistake. While it is well known that the late Postmaster's accounts are all settled, it is asserted that the accounts of Mr. Wallace as United States Marshal for this District, an office he left five years ago, are still unsettled. Put this and that together, and let "An Old Whig" say who is the proper man for Mayor.

The same "Old Whig" asks, "Will any whig throw his vote to sustain a party that has been pursued and vindictively proscribed, him and his associates?" In this he is equally unorthodox. The warfare of the old whig and democratic parties was honorable; no one complained of either. But the know-nothing party, which now will vote for Mr. Wallace, is the most proscribed party that ever existed in this country.

They not only were upon enemies, but they were upon a man, and one that you should not be against them; you must be for and with them. When in power here this party proscribed the National Intelligencer; they permitted three or four wards in this city to be without police magistrates, merely because they would not appoint anti-know-nothing police magistrates; they proscribed into business matters and private life; their one great principle was proscription. Mr. Wallace contributed his money to that same party then, and they are for him now as for his candidate.

ANOTHER OLD WHIG.

THE CHARGE VIRTUALLY ADMITTED. (From the Evening Star.) To My Fellow-Citizen: I observe with an intelligence of this morning two obnoxious communications, one the signatures respectively of "Another Old Whig" and "An Old Democrat," wherein allusions are made to the state of my accounts as late Marshal of this District, and an attempt is made by these eleven-hour traducers to make it appear that I am a defaulter to the government.

I have now, as you will know, been out of office over five years, with means abundant to satisfy any claim of the government; and if there be any such, as is now covertly sought to be used in the approaching municipal controversy, why have the officers of the Treasury permitted it to remain unsettled for so long a period?

The courts of law are open to the government, which has my official bond, as well as my private means, where they can obtain satisfaction for any claim against me; and to which a resort is cordially invited.

Respectfully, RICHARD WALLACH.

For the Union. Does Mr. Wallace deny that the Comptroller of the Treasury has called upon him for a settlement of his accounts as Marshal of this District, and that up to this time this call has been unanswered? The miserable pretext of driving the United States to "a trial at law" is always ready to be taken by those who hold the know-nothing party—a party which is and ever has been most bitterly proscribed towards those whose only fault is that they were born in a distant land? If so, talk no more of intolerance; for its victims are the worst enemies to themselves.

We would urge upon our friends the propriety of their voting early on Monday next, and that they turn out to a man, bearing in mind the fact that we are opposing a party whose operations are conducted in such a manner as to most completely devote us in regard to its real strength.

The election will be a close one, and no real friend of law and order can in this hour of emergency, let us now flatter himself with the idea that his candidate's majority will be sufficiently large without his vote, for a single vote often decides the contest!

The attention of the whole country is directed towards its metropolis at this juncture, and every true man is expected to do his duty. Let us not deceive ourselves, but let us follow citizens prove that there is enough of true patriotism still left in this city to restore to it the good reputation it sustained in years gone by, and to protect all of our citizens in the exercise and enjoyment of their free and inalienable rights.

W. B. MAGRUDER, Mayor.

LOOK WELL TO THE END!

The day of our municipal election is at hand, and it behooves all who are friendly to our cause to be on the alert and active, in view of the fact that their opponents have been resorting to every project that can add in the least to their chances of success. We cannot imagine how any rational person, in this community can consider Mr. Wallace in any other light than as the know-nothing candidate for the mayoralty; and yet the most remarkable feature in the canvass is the assiduity with which Mr. Wallace and his friends have labored (in a quiet manner, to be sure) to bring to his support a large class of our citizens to whose dearest interests they have ever been the bitter opponents. They do not our adopted citizens previously all this. And will they also be induced to be used by the know-nothing party—a party which is and ever has been most bitterly proscribed towards those whose only fault is that they were born in a distant land? If so, talk no more of intolerance; for its victims are the worst enemies to themselves.

We would urge upon our friends the propriety of their voting early on Monday next, and that they turn out to a man, bearing in mind the fact that we are opposing a party whose operations are conducted in such a manner as to most completely devote us in regard to its real strength.

The election will be a close one, and no real friend of law and order can in this hour of emergency, let us now flatter himself with the idea that his candidate's majority will be sufficiently large without his vote, for a single vote often decides the contest!

The attention of the whole country is directed towards its metropolis at this juncture, and every true man is expected to do his duty. Let us not deceive ourselves, but let us follow citizens prove that there is enough of true patriotism still left in this city to restore to it the good reputation it sustained in years gone by, and to protect all of our citizens in the exercise and enjoyment of their free and inalienable rights.

W. B. MAGRUDER, Mayor.

THE CHARACTER OF THE CONTEST.

At the commencement of the election campaign for mayor of this city, and through every step of its progress to this time, it has been the earnest desire of Col. Berret and his friends that the canvass should be conducted upon principles of dignified and honorable controversy, and free from all offensive personalities, as most conducive to the best results for the public interest and most worthy the character of an enlightened community.

But the friends of Mr. Wallace have thought otherwise, and have made a most unprovoked, vindictive, and unscrupulous aggression upon the reputation of Colonel Berret, which they have had the hardihood to press upon public notice with bitter and desperate perseverance. They have imposed upon the public mind, by a false testimony, against the overwhelming weight of adverse evidence, with an act of moral delinquency, and urge it as a disqualification for public trust.

By this act of Mr. Wallace's friends they have brought up the important question of morals as a controlling consideration for public advancement and if Col. Berret's friends were disposed to proceed upon a spirit of retaliation, they have abundant provocations to take the field and measure strength of character scrupulously between the two candidates upon every point of morals, intellect, honor, and everything that gives a good or bad repute before the scrutiny of public judgment. Had such a controversy been proposed to every sense of honor, and the sanctity that guards private character against the assaults of every reckless defamer.

The victory that is gained by falsehood and defamation of character has nothing to glory or dignity its triumph. It is a blighted wreath on a dishonored brow.

Whichever candidate ascends the high throne of moral honors for public good, they should look carefully to their state, and bear in mind, if they are known as moral transgressors and violators of the Decalogue, they have no right to insult the hallowed precincts of morality by profaning it with casting hypocrisy.

A virtuous and intelligent community, who are ever

A CARD FROM CHAS. ALBERT, ESQ.

On the 21st of the month I called to my attention an advertisement in the Star of yesterday, in which my name appears upon the "Independent Citizens' ticket" as one of their candidates for election to the board of common council. Had I been consulted before this announcement was made, I certainly would not have consented to my name being so used by a party antagonistic to the one to which I belong.

Having for several years past occupied a seat in the common council as a member of the democratic and anti-know-nothing party, and being now a candidate of that party, daily nominated, and announced by a public convention, and my party principles are well known to the citizens of the ward in which my nomination interests, I cannot but view this nomination by the opponents of my party with surprise, whatever may have been the intention. Last any misunderstanding should arise among the independent citizens' party in consequence of their announcement, I feel bound to state that the ticket of my party has no connection with the nomination and support, shall continue to have it, and will receive my vote.

Being too late for the evening papers, I will thank you to insert this in your paper of to-morrow.

Very respectfully, yours, CHAS. ALBERT.

THE MAYORALTY—REPLY TO "AN OLD WHIG."

I notice in your paper of to-day, (June 4th), in a communication signed "An Old Whig," the following: "An Old Democrat should consider that in voting for Mr. Berret he puts the hands that he has recently been among the millions of the National Treasury into the pockets of the millionaires, and that the habits of extravagance acquired by the handling of millions out there will be a man for the judicious management of hundreds."

Now, it is true that hundreds of thousands, if not millions, of public money have passed through Mr. Berret's hands; and it is true that every cent has been accounted for. Mr. Berret, upon leaving the City Post Office, promptly settled his accounts to the last dollar.

"An Old Whig" has made an unfortunate mistake. While it is well known that the late Postmaster's accounts are all settled, it is asserted that the accounts of Mr. Wallace as United States Marshal for this District, an office he left five years ago, are still unsettled. Put this and that together, and let "An Old Whig" say who is the proper man for Mayor.

The same "Old Whig" asks, "Will any whig throw his vote to sustain a party that has been pursued and vindictively proscribed, him and his associates?" In this he is equally unorthodox. The warfare of the old whig and democratic parties was honorable; no one complained of either. But the know-nothing party, which now will vote for Mr. Wallace, is the most proscribed party that ever existed in this country.

They not only were upon enemies, but they were upon a man, and one that you should not be against them; you must be for and with them. When in power here this party proscribed the National Intelligencer; they permitted three or four wards in this city to be without police magistrates, merely because they would not appoint anti-know-nothing police magistrates; they proscribed into business matters and private life; their one great principle was proscription. Mr. Wallace contributed his money to that same party then, and they are for him now as for his candidate.

ANOTHER OLD WHIG.

THE CHARGE VIRTUALLY ADMITTED. (From the Evening Star.) To My Fellow-Citizen: I observe with an intelligence of this morning two obnoxious communications, one the signatures respectively of "Another Old Whig" and "An Old Democrat," wherein allusions are made to the state of my accounts as late Marshal of this District, and an attempt is made by these eleven-hour traducers to make it appear that I am a defaulter to the government.

I have now, as you will know, been out of office over five years, with means abundant to satisfy any claim of the government; and if there be any such, as is now covertly sought to be used in the approaching municipal controversy, why have the officers of the Treasury permitted it to remain unsettled for so long a period?

The courts of law are open to the government, which has my official bond, as well as my private means, where they can obtain satisfaction for any claim against me; and to which a resort is cordially invited.

Respectfully, RICHARD WALLACH.

For the Union. Does Mr. Wallace deny that the Comptroller of the Treasury has called upon him for a settlement of his accounts as Marshal of this District, and that up to this time this call has been unanswered? The miserable pretext of driving the United States to "a trial at law" is always ready to be taken by those who hold the know-nothing party—a party which is and ever has been most bitterly proscribed towards those whose only fault is that they were born in a distant land? If so, talk no more of intolerance; for its victims are the worst enemies to themselves.

We would urge upon our friends the propriety of their voting early on Monday next, and that they turn out to a man, bearing in mind the fact that we are opposing a party whose operations are conducted in such a manner as to most completely devote us in regard to its real strength.

The election will be a close one, and no real friend of law and order can in this hour of emergency, let us now flatter himself with the idea that his candidate's majority will be sufficiently large without his vote, for a single vote often decides the contest!

The attention of the whole country is directed towards its metropolis at this juncture, and every true man is expected to do his duty. Let us not deceive ourselves, but let us follow citizens prove that there is enough of true patriotism still left in this city to restore to it the good reputation it sustained in years gone by, and to protect all of our citizens in the exercise and enjoyment of their free and inalienable rights.

W. B. MAGRUDER, Mayor.

LOOK WELL TO THE END!

The day of our municipal election is at hand, and it behooves all who are friendly to our cause to be on the alert and active, in view of the fact that their opponents have been resorting to every project that can add in the least to their chances of success. We cannot imagine how any rational person, in this community can consider Mr. Wallace in any other light than as the know-nothing candidate for the mayoralty; and yet the most remarkable feature in the canvass is the assiduity with which Mr. Wallace and his friends have labored (in a quiet manner, to be sure) to bring to his support a large class of our citizens to whose dearest interests they have ever been the bitter opponents. They do not our adopted citizens previously all this. And will they also be induced to be used by the know-nothing party—a party which is and ever has been most bitterly proscribed towards those whose only fault is that they were born in a distant land? If so, talk no more of intolerance; for its victims are the worst enemies to themselves.

We would urge upon our friends the propriety of their voting early on Monday next, and that they turn out to a man, bearing in mind the fact that we are opposing a party whose operations are conducted in such a manner as to most completely devote us in regard to its real strength.

The election will be a close one, and no real friend of law and order can in this hour of emergency, let us now flatter himself with the idea that his candidate's majority will be sufficiently large without his vote, for a single vote often decides the contest!

The attention of the whole country is directed towards its metropolis at this juncture, and every true man is expected to do his duty. Let us not deceive ourselves, but let us follow citizens prove that there is enough of true patriotism still left in this city to restore to it the good reputation it sustained in years gone by, and to protect all of our citizens in the exercise and enjoyment of their free and inalienable rights.

W. B. MAGRUDER, Mayor.

THE CHARACTER OF THE CONTEST.

At the commencement of the election campaign for mayor of this city, and through every step of its progress to this time, it has been the earnest desire of Col. Berret and his friends that the canvass should be conducted upon principles of dignified and honorable controversy, and free from all offensive personalities, as most conducive to the best results for the public interest and most worthy the character of an enlightened community.

But the friends of Mr. Wallace have thought otherwise, and have made a most unprovoked, vindictive, and unscrupulous aggression upon the reputation of Colonel Berret, which they have had the hardihood to press upon public notice with bitter and desperate perseverance. They have imposed upon the public mind, by a false testimony, against the overwhelming weight of adverse evidence, with an act of moral delinquency, and urge it as a disqualification for public trust.

By this act of Mr. Wallace's friends they have brought up the important question of morals as a controlling consideration for public advancement and if Col. Berret's friends were disposed to proceed upon a spirit of retaliation, they have abundant provocations to take the field and measure strength of character scrupulously between the two candidates upon every point of morals, intellect, honor, and everything that gives a good or bad repute before the scrutiny of public judgment. Had such a controversy been proposed to every sense of honor, and the sanctity that guards private character against the assaults of every reckless defamer.

The victory that is gained by falsehood and defamation of character has nothing to glory or dignity its triumph. It is a blighted wreath on a dishonored brow.

Whichever candidate ascends the high throne of moral honors for public good, they should look carefully to their state, and bear in mind, if they are known as moral transgressors and violators of the Decalogue, they have no right to insult the hallowed precincts of morality by profaning it with casting hypocrisy.

A virtuous and intelligent community, who are ever watched and jealous of their rights, will not consent to have their rights handed by those who manifest a habit of despising those essential elements that dignify a virtuous life, and give security to the great social edifice.

The faithful advocates and watchmen of public and private virtue deserve to be honored everywhere for their high and holy commission. But let no unskilled pretender have a place within the temple where the just abide.

VOX POPULI. For the Union.

CAUTION TO THE JUDGES OF ELECTIONS.

I have noted that some of the know-nothings have obtained certificates whose names are on the poll list, and the inference may be fairly made that they intend to vote in the ward in which they are registered, and also to vote in some other ward on each certificate. I also have proof that a magistrate (of course know-nothing) is engaged in a certain printing office manufacturing certificates.

LOOK OUT. BARRAGERS.—The friends of the late John W. Maury are called upon to remember his defeat, and the party and men who brought it about. It is said that Richard Wallach was one of the ring-leaders, and that he held the purse-strings to help that iniquity through.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—During the thunder-storm on Friday morning, a negro man was struck by lightning while standing under a shed at the brick-yard of Captain John Hopkins, near the paper-mill bridge. He died instantly.

New Vendors were plentiful at the Centre market yesterday. Peas, potatoes, beets, tomatoes, radishes, spinach, asparagus, lettuce and radishes were abundant and cheap. Strawberries, some of them very fine, were sold at from 10 to 25 cents per quart.

ALEXANDRIA.

COUNTY COURT.—The June term of the county court for this county commences to-morrow. All the magistrates are summoned to attend. Among the business before the court will be the auditing of the county accounts, and the imposition of a levy for county expenses.

MARRIAGES.—Twelve marriage licenses were issued during the month of May, from the office of the county clerk of this county.

Circus.—Sells, Mathias, & Co.'s performing elephants, and of F. Bally & Co.'s Circus and Menagerie, performed in this city yesterday afternoon. They leave this morning for Fredericksburg.

THE LADIES of this city will hold a festival on Monday evening for the benefit of Grace Church. We wish them success.

MARKETS.—Flour—no sales reported. Wheat—offerings good, market quiet—white, $1 a $1 10; red, 30 a $1 05. Corn—offerings good, market active; white and mixed, 60 cents; yellow, 63 a 64 cents. Rye, 65 cents. Oats, 34 cents; straw, 25 cents.

MARINE NEWS.

ARRIVED. Schooner S. G. King, Anderson, Philadelphia, to S. Shinn. Schooner Knight, Sears, Georgetown, to McElridge. Schooner William, Jones, Norfolk, to S. Shinn. Schooner Spirit of the Times, Steyer, Port Deposit, to S. Shinn. Schooner Wheeler.

DEPARTED. Brig Ann M. Welch, Norfolk, Boston, to be Fowle & Co. Schooner Tantomont, Davis, New York, to be Fowle & Co. Schooner H. P. Peyton, Nicholson, Boston, to McElridge.

ARRIVED. Ship H. Harbeck, from this port, for Manila, was spoken 54th river, 24 1/2 hrs. ago. Schooner M. C. Durie, Hall, for this port, sailed from Fall River, 20th inst. Schooner Medora, Roberts, for Washington, cleared at New York, 24th inst. Schooner J. H. Jones, Parker, from this port, arrived at Albany, 24th inst. Schooner Anna B. Hayes, Robinson, for Georgetown, cleared at Philadelphia, 24th inst.

ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS.

FOR THE FUNERAL OF THE HON. J. PINCKNEY HENDERSON, A Senator of the United States from the State of Texas. The committee of arrangements, pall-bearers, and mourners, will attend at the late residence of the deceased, No. 512, 12th street, at 2 o'clock, p. m., on Monday the 6th inst., at which time the corpse will be removed in charge of the Committee of Arrangements, to be held by the pall-bearers and mourners, and the funeral at 3 o'clock, p. m., at the residence of the deceased, No. 512, 12th street, at which time the funeral will be performed. When these ceremonies are completed the funeral will move from the Senate Chamber to the place of interment, in the following order:

The Chaplain of Congress for the occasion. The Physicians who attended the deceased. COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS. Mr. Bayard, Mr. Wade, Mr. Cameron, Mr. Hammond, Mr. Clay, Mr. Seward.

PALL-BEARERS. Mr. Brown, Mr. Stambaugh, Mr. Starnes, Mr. Finch, Mr. Clingman, Mr. Wilson. The family and friends of the deceased. The Senator and Representatives from the State of Texas, as mourners. The Board of Trustees of the Senate of the United States. The members of the Senate of the United States, preceded by the Vice President of the United States and the Secretary of the Senate.

The Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives. The members of the House of Representatives, preceded by their respective Clerks. The President of the United States. The Heads of Departments. The Officers of the Army and Navy. The Mayor of Washington. Clergymen and Strangers. June 6.

CHAPLAIN SERVICE AT THE CAPITOL.—REV. S. P. Hill, D. D., will preach in the Hall of the House Sabbath morning, 2 o'clock, p. m., on Monday the 6th inst.

NOTICE.—The special police of the second ward are requested to meet at half-past 7 o'clock, on Monday morning, at the residence of the deceased, in connection with the funeral. Other names will be substituted for those who fail to report them.

WALTER LENOX, Captain Special Police 2d Ward.